EASTERN NEWS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Rumors in Connection with the Virginius Butchery.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—The Sentinel: It is said among Spanish residents in this city that in addition to those whose execution is already reported, every one found on board the Virginius at the time of her capture has been put to death. According to the statement not an individual witness of the affair is left alive. A report from Washington late that news has been received there of the slaughter of all the remainder of those taken on the [illegible] and the further statement that the United States Government [illegible] warlike dispatch through Minister Sickles to the Spanish Government is generally credited [illegible] conversation.

A Washington dispatch says news has just been [illegible] the rest of the crew and passengers [illegible] making 111 persons in all [illegible] demands have been made [illegible] Government on that [illegible] it will be impossible for Spain [illegible] and which must end in a rupture between the two countries, and that these demands have been telegraphed to Minister Sickles.

Proposition from the Brother of one of the Murdered Patriots.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—Walter Stuart, who says he has every reason to believe that his brother, Colonel Stuart, is among the passengers of the Virginius, offers to pay liberally for any information concerning his fate. He makes following proposition to the Cuban patriots of this city: "I will subscribe $50,000 to every $10,000 if they will raise 1,000 men well officered, able bodied and all having seen service, and put them aboard of a suitable vessel that the Cubans shall furnish properly equipped and provisioned at some point on our coast that I may select. As a guarantee to perform what I propose I will put up a forfeit of $10,000 to be used for the benefit of families who have lost their protectors by the [illegible] butchery."

The U. S. steamer Kansas sailed to-day for Santiago de Cuba.

CHICAGO, Nov. 14.—It is stated by one of the morning papers that a mother and sister of General Ryan, who was killed by the Spaniards in Cuba, reside in this city, and that he has a brother living in Will county, Illinois.

[illegible]

The Virginius [illegible] at War.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—In reply to a dispatch of the Secretary of State to Consul General Hall at Havana to inquire into the report of the wholesale execution of the Virginius crew, officers and passengers, and to enter a protest against the haste of the trial in the face of orders from the Madrid Government, our Consul replies that the Vice Consul [illegible] protested against the proceedings, but that his action was seriously obstructed by Spanish officers, all avenues of communication being closed against him and the telegraph line between Santiago and Havana being in [illegible]. He was prevented from telegraphing to Kingston an order to make inquiries relative to the Virginius and when she was brought into port there was nothing left to him but the slow process of the mails and this made communication of no advantage. Immediately on receipt of Consul General Hall's dispatch the Secretary of State instructed Minister Sickles to enter with the Spanish Government a strong protest against the proceedings at Santiago, characterizing them as an outrage on civilization and humanity and an insult to the American Government. Gen. Sickles has replied that he had had an interview with the Minister of Foreign Affairs, and had acted in accordance with instructions. He further says that the Spanish Government, duly impressed with its responsibility, had promised to act in such manner as to show its disapproval of the proceedings at Santiago, and at the same time show its friendship for this Government. The President being restrained by the Constitution and laws from making war on Spain by attacking her colonies, all that can now be done is by way of correspondence with the Madrid Government. The official papers are to be laid before Congress for such action as the dignity of the nation may require, the vindication of its honor and the full protection of its citizens. The Government is meanwhile making preparations to meet all issues which may arise. The Juniata has been ordered immediately to Santiago de Cuba. She will be commanded by Commander A. V. Reed. In addition the Mahopac and Manhattan and the iron clads Powhattan and Saugus will also be ordered to active service in the North Atlantic Squadron. The War Department will strengthen the forts on the Gulf, having already taken measures for strengthening and additionally garrisoning Fort Jefferson, Florida. There is much activity in the Brooklyn navy yard. The Juniata will be ready for sea to-night.

Cuban meetings [illegible] held in Philadelphia and New York. One will be held to-day in Washington. The feeling [illegible] and the Cuban authorities is intense.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—It can be stated on official authority that while the present naval preparations [illegible] against Spain or Cuba, they are significant of the determination of this Government to protect American interests at any hazard, and to prevent in future such measures as those which followed the capture of the Virginius, as nothing effective can be depended upon from the Spanish Government. Our Government is now waiting to hear what the Spanish Government will do in response to an earnest protest against the outrage. It can be stated on authority that the President has not, as reported, written a dispatch to General Sickles directing him to offer our co-operation to [illegible] the President of Spain in movements to control the Cubans. Nothing of the kind has ever been suggested.

PACIFIC COAST NEWS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 14.—The Anti-Chinese Convention closed its labors at a late hour last night, after adopting preamble and resolutions denouncing Chinese labor and immigration, and praying the President and Senate to amend the Chinese treaty so as to make it wholly commercial or abrogate it entirely, praying Congress to pass laws for the protection of our people against ruinous competition with Chinese, denouncing Chinese as filthy in habits and corrupting in their influence. There being no families with them they adopt a few of our customs and crowd our country with servile laborers imported from China under contract. The attendance last night was very slim and the proceedings beyond the debate on the resolution uninteresting.

The trial of Frank Harris, mate of the ship Sunrise, was resumed to-day with the examination of four witnesses for the prosecution.

It is reported that Sheriff Adams will to-day pay to the Auditor all the money held by him as fees claimed to have been illegally withheld by him.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 14.—Everything is propitious for the great race to-morrow. The weather is fine and the track in good condition. It is believed that Hubbard will not go. Stevens, Daniels, True Blue and Mamie Hall will start. In pools to-night Stevens held the lead. A great crowd is present and bidding brisk. Stevens $410—$200; True Blue, $250; Daniels $135; Field $35. Other pools sold higher in the same proportion. Over $50,000 will be sold to-night. Bets on the outside are two to one in favor of Thad Stevens.

J. W. Winter has sued the Belmont Mining Company, claiming $10,000 for loss of mining stock, which plaintiff alleges was stolen from him.

SAN JUAN SOUTH, Nov. 14.—By the arrival of the stage from New Idria we learn that there was a sheep herder murdered near New Idria on the 12th inst. by two men, one of them named Chaves, the companion of Vasquez. The man was shot six times, and then Chaves cut his throat. Chaves escaped, but the other was taken and tried by the people. The man confessed all and was hung. We don't know the name of the man that was killed nor the one that was hung, but these are the main facts, and will be found nearly or quite correct.

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 14.—A heavy north wind has been blowing all day.

Four cars were attached to the Vallejo train this afternoon, all of which will be well filled with visitors to the great race. A further delegation will go down by early train to-morrow.

Mrs. Dowdy, Mrs. Mankin and McKern, the women who so brutally battered the drunken man in their groggery on Fifth street, were found guilty of drunkenness and peace breaking, to-day.

FRESNO, Nov. 14.—Advices [illegible] reached here last night that Mr. Jones' store at Millerton, on the San Joaquin, was robbed by seven masked men on last Monday night. The robbers entered the store, tied and gagged eight men and relieved them of between seven and eight hundred dollars. It is supposed that it is some of Tiburcio Basque's work.

PLACERVILLE, Nov. 14.—The recount of the whole vote for Sheriff gives W. H. Brown 10 majority. The trial is still progressing. The claim of fraudulent votes by parties voting at other than their precincts is shown by registration.

CALISTOGA, Nov. 14.—A terrible north wind blew here last night which demolished a partly constructed building and prostrated trees. Otherwise very little damage was done.

NEVADA.

CHERRY CREEK, Nov. 14.—This morning Quigby, who had been engaged in the shooting affray yesterday, returned to fix up his house and found some one had been occupying the lot last night, who proved to be a man named Fitzpatrick, who had been engaged by Norton to hold the lot for him. Quigby asked him what he was doing there. He replied that the lot belonged to him. An altercation ensued, blows were given, Quigby striking Fitzpatrick in the face. Fitzpatrick drew a pistol and fired two shots at Quigby, who returned the fire, firing three shots, one of which struck Fitzpatrick above the forehead, entering the brain and coming out at the back of the head. There are no hopes of his recovery.

LABOR PROSPECTS IN THE EAST.

From our latest Eastern exchanges we compile the following reports of the condition of manufacturing and labor interests in the East.

NEW ENGLAND.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Nov. 1.—In compliance with the new regulations, a majority of the mills which shut down to-day will run eight hours a day for the next four days and shut down again on Saturday, thus making half time.

A reduction of 20 per cent in the wages of the employees of the Taunton Car Company is announced to-day, in consequence of which twenty-five of the carpenters are on a strike.

The Morgan Envelope Company, at Springfield, Mass., will run only eight hours a day in all its departments during the present month. It hopes that it can thus supply all demand for postal cards by running only half time. The Wason Car Works have largely reduced their number of employes and will run henceforth but eight hours a day. The Papier-mache Company, in Springfield, employing only one-fourth its usual number of men, [illegible] will soon be entirely idle unless new orders are received.

The Merrimack Woolen Mills at Dracut, Mass., will shut down as soon as the present stock of yarn is made up, but this will take several weeks. The Lowell Courier says it is true that the Boott Mills in that city pay but six per cent semi-annual dividend this month instead of ten per cent as heretofore, but that they have earned ten per cent the past six months and are saving a little to tide over hard times with.

Of matters in Berkshire county, Mass., the Pittsfield Eagle says: "From all the towns the news is one of reduction in the running time of the mills and factories, the cutting down of wages and the [illegible] of help. The South Paper Company, of Lee, has discharged nearly fifty of their hands and put the rest on half time. The other mills are to reduce to half or three quarters time. Some of the Adams factories are to be run only on half time, and in our own town one are running three quarters time and the others will probably all be running on short time within a week or two unless there should be an improvement in the market. At this date the Plunkett Woolen Company have placed their three mills on three quarters time."

Pitkin Brothers' Iron Works at Hartford, Conn., which do a business of about $500,000 a year, are now supplied with work enough to keep running [illegible]. They have run on short time but once in [illegible] years.

[illegible]

GREEN BAY (Wis.), Nov. 3.—The Peshtigo Lumbering Co. to-day closed all their mills. Their large mill employed from 200 to 300 men, sawing 250,000 feet per day. They remain closed until spring. A number of the men employed will go to the woods logging during winter. There is a general closing of mills in this section. Many predict a very dull winter.

OSHKOSH (Wis.), Nov. 3.—Niles, Stickney & Co., wholesale boot and shoe manufacturers, employing over 50 workmen, have discharged the entire force until the present financial difficulty has blown over.

Fletcher & Everitt, of the Vulcan Iron Works, have cut down the wages of their hands about 20 per cent, and to-morrow will cut down working hours to 8 instead of 10 and 11 as heretofore, without a corresponding decrease of wages. Other foundries and machine shops have adopted the short pay system, and will probably soon commence on short time. A general feeling of depression prevails in financial circles.

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., Nov. 3.—Kay & Co.'s shawl factory has begun running on half time.

An inquiry has been made in the Philadelphia firms [illegible] as to the amount of work the public departments can give the unemployed during the winter. Investigations made have been very unsatisfactory, as they tend to show that probably little can be done in this way to relieve the necessities of those thrown out of employment by the closing of manufacturing establishments, &c.

The hat factories in Reading, Penn., sixteen in number, nearly all closed on Saturday. They employed from 800 to 1,000 hands and the monthly wages amounted to $25,000 or $30,000. The factories will not probably be able to resume for several months. Otherwise Reading has not yet suffered severely from the panic.

The Columbus (Ga.) Sun of October 29th reports that from the want of orders and difficulty in collecting notes past due the Muscogee cotton mills are running only eight hours a day, a reduction of two hours from former time. The other four manufactories in the city are running on full time and will do so as long as possible.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 2.—Considerable feeling is exhibited among the workmen of Jeffersonville, Ind., because the penitentiary officers have let convict labor outside of the State grounds, contrary to a decision of the Indiana Supreme Court. The convict labor is pushing free labor out. Hence the indignation.

OSWEGO, Oct. 31.—Hoyt, Sprague & Co.'s woolen mills at Oswego Falls will close to-morrow until further notice. Some five hundred operatives will be thrown out of employment.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—The feather factory in Hoboken closed to-day on account of the scarcity of money. Two hundred hands are thrown out of employment.

The Erie railway is reducing its force in different shops along the line, and the workmen retained will be put on three-quarters time, commencing to-morrow.

PORTSMOUTH, Oct. 31.—Four hundred workmen were discharged from the navy-yard to-day.

The wages of the Narragansett Steamship Company's employes were reduced 10 per cent in this city (Newport, R. I.) to-day. One hundred thousand dollars' worth of Sprague paper is held by the banks and private individuals in this city.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 1.—The woolen mills around the Falls have reduced the wages of the employes fifteen and twenty per cent, commencing on this day for the season. Several iron manufacturers have reduced wages on skilled labor ten and on common twenty per cent. Many discharged workmen of the railroad companies have gone to Memphis for work now that the fever has abated.

THAD STEVENS' ANTAGONIST.

ARRIVAL OF CHAMBERLAIN, THE OWNER OF TRUE BLUE—HISTORY OF THE HORSE WHICH IS TO RUN IN THE GREATEST RUNNING CONTEST EVER KNOWN IN AMERICA—CHAMBERLAIN'S QUARREL WITH [illegible] WILKES.

In view of the great $20,000 running race which is to come off in San Francisco to-day, the annexed description of one of the competing racers will be interesting to many.

Last evening a Chronicle reporter boarded the overland train from New York at Niles' Junction. In one of the cars we found John F. Chamberlain, the owner of True Blue, the New York horse which is to run in the great race on Saturday next. Mr. Chamberlain was accompanied by his wife and A. J. Bryant, the President of the California Jockey Club, who had gone to Sacramento to meet the representative of the New York sporting fraternity.

Mr. Chamberlain has always been a patron of the race course, and was the first to propose a track at Long Branch. He owns a controlling interest in the stock of the Monmouth Park Association, and is as well known as the ruling spirit of the Long Branch races as John Morrissey is of those of Saratoga.

SOMETHING ABOUT TRUE BLUE.

He and the reporter engaged in a conversation which lasted from the departure of the train at Niles until its arrival in San Francisco. In the course of the dialogue the merits of True Blue were pretty thoroughly discussed. He said: "I bought the horse from John M. Clay, a son of Henry Clay, about a year and a half ago. He is now four years old and carries 108 pounds. He has run two miles in 3:32. I have sent out with him his companion Wheatly, and a two year old, Weathercock. I thought possibly we might get up a two year old race here before I go back. This race, which takes place next Saturday, will be the greatest ever known on the Pacific coast. If the horses are in good condition it will be the grandest race ever seen in this country. There is no doubt on this point. California has attempted to arrange the greatest running contest ever known in the United States, and if the horses are in proper condition she will carry off the palm in racing."

POINTS AND HISTORY OF [illegible]

Mr. Chamberlain gave the history of his horse as follows:

"He is a blood bay with a white [illegible] and is 16 hands 1½ inches high. His head and neck are remarkably fine and neat. His shoulders are fine, legs well placed, very fine through the heart, excellent in the loin, with full round barrel [illegible] hips slightly [illegible] crupper very slightly [illegible]. He did not start in his two year old form. He started twice as a three year old [illegible] Jerome Park [illegible] Dixie stakes at Baltimore, won by Hubbard, Daniel [illegible] third. He had been badly injured [illegible]. After [illegible] he ran second to Wanderer at Jerome Park in the Westchester Cup, 2¼ miles; time 4:01. [illegible] ran third for the Saratoga Cup, won by Joe Daniels, Harry Bassett second, won the Jockey Club purse $800, two miles at Saratoga [illegible] Mate Hubbard, Joe Daniels, [illegible] McCormack, the Nurse and Boss Tweed, and [illegible] he won the [illegible] purse, 2¼ miles, at Jerome Park, beating Katie Pease. He also won the purse of $700 [illegible] at Baltimore, beating [illegible] distance, Harry Bassett up 49. True Blue comes of a celebrated racing family. His dam [illegible] was a very fine [illegible] at all distances. Revolver, a fine race horse, and [illegible] is now owned by D. F. Cruse of Ohio, and promises to make a successful stallion. The Bushes [illegible] sister to True Blue was considered the best [illegible] in Colonel [illegible]'s stable and is said to have run a mile trial at Saratoga in 1:43. The next produce of [illegible] was True Blue. Herald [illegible] the grandsire of True Blue, is by Herald, the son of the great English [illegible] out of imported Delphine by Whisker. He ran [illegible] the great Peyton stake at Nashville in 1843. Such [illegible] produced Hall [illegible] Panic [illegible] Sailor [illegible] and [illegible] the celebrated [illegible] Margaret Woods, was [illegible] imported Prioress [illegible] English Eclipse [illegible]. She was the dam of [illegible] Herald [illegible] Hampton, Star Davis [illegible] Captain Travis, Yorktown and Georgia Wood, [illegible] all of which were winners at all distances. "It will be seen by this," said Mr. Chamberlain, "that True Blue is descended from the best racing families in America. His sire Lexington is acknowledged as the king of the sires and monarch of race horses on the American Continent. If my horse is in condition the horse which beats him will make the time low down in the twenties."

Reporter—I suppose, Mr. Chamberlain, you have come prepared to back your horse to any amount?

A COMPLIMENT TO CALIFORNIA.

Mr. Chamberlain—Of course I have come prepared for anything, and there are more coming behind me. There was a special car chartered by the New York sporting men which left New York for here either Tuesday or Wednesday. As I say I have come prepared for anything, but whether I back my horse or not must, of course, depend upon circumstances. If he is in good condition the day before the race I shall back him for any amount. There is plenty of money coming here from New York, and we mean either to leave it here or take yours away with us. I have spent $5,000 to get my horse here, and I wouldn't have them beaten for the world if I can help it. The only horse I am afraid of is Thad Stevens. If any horse beats True Blue it will be him. But as I said before, if my horse is in good condition I will back him even against your Pacific horses.—S. F. Chronicle, Nov. 10th.

BAZAINE'S TRIAL.

The trial of Marshal Bazaine proceeds slowly, and the reports of the day take up only two or three columns of the press. The Duc D'Aumale has made a model President thus far and has shown great kindness to the prisoner. The old theory was that such kindness was very ominous. The Duke never fails to recall the Marshal's services. "You were at Bomarsund," he asks, and immediately adds, "Of course you were, since I see here that you drew your sword and placed yourself at the head of your troops in the thickest of the fight." "Yes, Monsieur Le President," replies Bazaine. And of another battle he says: "It was there that you were struck upon the shoulder with a piece of shell, having your epaulet torn off, which saved you from being killed." Such phrases as "with your well known courage," are frequently used by the Duke. Bazaine replies promptly and gives very clear answers to the questions asked him.

STRATEGY OF THE DEFENSE.

I must pause here to notice one very important point which I am privately informed will be used with great effect by M. Lachaud. The military code expressly and formally declares (what I did not know when I previously wrote) that the report of the commissary shall not be considered as an act of indictment, and that the reporter shall not under any circumstances add a single personal application. His role is to relate facts, or what he regards as such, without any comment of his own. But the report of Gen. De Riviere is full of personal applications, in violation of the military code, and in a civil trial the Court of Cassation would break any judgment rendered under such conditions. If the Marshal should be convicted, which I very much doubt, M. Lachaud will appeal to the Secretary of War, basing his appeal primarily upon this gross irregularity. General De Riviere has even descended to personal abuse, and has stated, without any proof whatever, that Magnan, being a man of noted courage, his conduct could only be explained on the ground that he was in collusion with Bazaine. General Soleille and another officer who refused any testimony adverse to Bazaine, or whose testimony was in his favor, are treated in the same offhand fashion. If it were not contrary to the code of honor to challenge an officer who is supposed to be exercising a painful duty imposed upon him, De Riviere would already have four or five duels upon his hands, for his brother officers accuse him not only of violating the law in his hatred for Bazaine, but even of making an unpardonable use of his position.—Paris Cor. N. Y. Times.

PINCHING TIMES IN BOSTON.

BOSTON, Nov. 3.—The dry goods trade of Boston is making every preparation for a hard winter if signs can be relied on. So poor has been the retail trade that new goods offered this fall for the first time are advertised at half their regular prices and in some cases at less than the cost of importation. The great house of Jordan, Marsh & Co., representative of the pushing, dashy style of business, is ordinarily crowded with customers at this season, but now their immense building is almost empty except of clerks and goods. This house got its first ideas of splurge when the late James Fisk was one of the partners, and has since advertised loudly and launched out into all sorts of enterprises. It now occupies the whole of a large block, and sells all kinds of dry and fancy goods, carpets, clothing, gentlemen's furnishing goods, and almost everything in fact. There have been rumors the past week of their serious embarrassment which so far do not seem to be confirmed. No one here would be much surprised at their confirmation, however. It is said they have been sending back large shipments of imported goods.

It is pleasing to record an improved state of feeling in financial circles since Saturday. The intelligence of the probability of a satisfactory settlement of the affairs of the Spragues and the safety of H. B. Claflin & Co. has done much to reassure the people of Boston.

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 30.—Mr. W. H. [illegible], Superintendent of the Boston Young Men's Christian Association and Free Employment Bureau, sends the following note to the Associated Press:

"I wish to check a woeful expenditure of time and money by the poor and laboring classes by having the word go forth that Boston does not afford remunerative employment for one-tenth of its idle thousands. It is worse than useless for others to come here for work."

Work in the Bible houses of New York have been closed and the hands paid off.

CONVICTION OF [illegible].—A Winchester dispatch of November 4th says: The jury in the [illegible] murder case rendered a verdict of murder in the first degree. The prisoner bore the verdict with greater absence of feeling than he has shown throughout the trial. On the first ballot the jury stood six for guilty, five not guilty and one undecided. The second [illegible]. Sometimes there was more [illegible] for acquittal than [illegible] till they reached the sixth ballot. Then they returned to the Court room for instructions. The minority for acquittal dwindled down and a verdict of guilty returned. Mr. Purdy moved for a new trial. The trial has been the all absorbing topic of discussion in this vicinity and the daily sessions of the Court have been attended by large crowds, some to hear the evidence in the case and others to appease a morbid curiosity by a sight of the accused.

OREGON.

Salem has a haunted house sensation.

Oakland is going to have a mock legislature this winter.

The first marriage in the Wallowa Valley took place last week.

Col. W. T. White has tendered his resignation as Chief Engineer of the Oregon City Fire Department.

We learn that the corner stone for a plow factory and foundry at St. Joe was laid a day or two ago.

Thompson's famous steam plow will be turning up the virgin soil in Yamhill in two weeks if it don't rain.

Corinne, daughter of Prof. J. C. Campbell, editor of the Monmouth Messenger, died on the 17th ult., aged [illegible] years.

No potatoes are to be found in the Albany market, says the Democrat. Now how high is that for Oregon farmers?

Twenty three thousand bushels of wheat, in a warehouse three miles below Albany, were sold on the 8th inst at $1 05 per bushel.

The Enterprise reports the abrupt departure from Oswego of one Wilson, a contractor, who left numerous creditors minus their just dues.

Mr. Newby of Yamhill county sheared sixteen pounds of wool from a merino buck which got accidentally killed on his farm a few days ago.

A correspondent at Butte Disappointment, Lane county, writes us that travel over the military road still continues. The grass is growing finely and stock looks well.

Col. Saxe is expecting another lot of his fine Kentucky stock, to arrive by the Coos Bay route, and left Salem on the 13th inst. for Roseburg, where he expects to meet them.

W. J. Caldwell, City Assessor and Collector of Oregon City, at the last meeting of the City Council tendered his resignation, which was accepted. His successor was not appointed.

The cases of the State of Oregon against R. J. May and his bondsmen, pending in the Circuit Court for Marion county, agreeable to a stipulation has been referred to Hon. M. P. Deady.

A fast chap named Morris Graves disturbed a Justice Court at Oswego last Monday, and got 21 days in the county jail. As he has spent two years in the penitentiary he didn't mind it much.

A supposed ghost frightened two Lafayette girls nearly out of their wits a few evenings since. They ran two miles home and their big brothers ran two miles back to find out that the ghost was a bald faced horse.

While crossing the ferry at Albany the other day, a team belonging to Marion Davis, got scared and plunged off the boat, dragging a wagon load of wood into the river. The wood was lost and one of the horses drowned.

The papers which have patent outsides continue to reach us occasionally with no outsides at all, being only half sheets. It is a great inconvenience to these editors when the Chicago or San Francisco part of their papers fails to reach them in time.

A rumor comes from Pendleton that a man named Raley, of that place, was found dead on Birch creek, last Tuesday, under such circumstances as led to the suspicion that he had been murdered, and robbed of money which [illegible] believed he had on his person.

Dr. Hall, an old resident of Oakland, has just reached home from a year's visit to England. He was cordially welcomed by many friends. He brought with him several trained ferrets with which he proposes to play havoc with such farm pests as rats, mice, squirrels, etc.

The ladies of the United Presbyterian Church of Albany have determined to give an eminent feast of good things at Pacific Opera House on Thanksgiving Day, next Thursday week. A dinner will be spread from one to six o'clock in the afternoon, and at night a "reunion" and sociable will follow.

As a proof of the continued richness of the Ochoco mines, the Democrat is informed that the two principal owners of the mines have already made enough money out of them, in the past six months, to buy a trapper's outfit and have gone off into the mountains for a winter's siege at fur getting.

The Central Council of Grangers for Linn, Polk, Benton and part of Marion counties, met at Albany on the 17th inst. The Council is composed of the Masters and two delegates from each of the Subordinate Granges. There were sixty members in attendance. They had the appearance of a superior class of men.

From Oswego we learn that the iron company are getting out a large amount of ore, and making other extensive preparations to commence work soon. The ore is said to be of the finest quality and it is hoped that when work is once fairly commenced the furnace will not soon stop again. A large number of hands are at work and the place presents a lively and business like appearance.

The Advocate says: We have received an interesting letter from Rev. I. D. Driver announcing a great work at Salem on Sunday last. The day was set apart for the reception of voluntary offerings toward the liquidation of the debt on the M. E. church. Before the day closed the handsome sum of $6,799 was subscribed. The good work thus begun by Bros. McPheeters and Driver will be urged to completion.

The fruit that Mr. J. Henry Brown of Salem sent to the Agricultural Department at Washington City arrived safely and in a very good condition, but the Department made suggestions in regard to packing, etc. The Department paid a very handsome compliment to Oregon as a fruit growing State. Mr. Brown says if any fruit growers or farmers will bring in specimens of their fruit with labels pasted on them he will send the same to the Department and the same will be credited to the producer.

The La Grande Sentinel says: Billy Davis, a race rider, on Tuesday last was practicing a two year old colt, when suddenly it bolted the track and attempted to dash under a pole. The boy endeavored to save himself from being hurt by bending down beside the colt, but unfortunately he was struck by the pole just back of the ear, fracturing the skull. Dr. Hulsey was sent for, and thanks be to his skill the boy is now in a fair way to recover. We suppose this is the case our correspondent alluded to when he made us say Dorris and that the boy was instantly killed. We can therefore inform the News that the "regrets" of the young man's friends cannot be so great as indicated.

THE TERRITORIES.

A party of eight surveyors left Tacoma on the 12th to lay off a part of Puyallup Valley.

One hundred tons of coal have been shipped from the mine near Tenino to San Francisco to parties who design testing it with reference to make large orders.

It is reported that there are now 700 men in the Yakima mines. Latest reports throw no discredit on former accounts of the probable richness of these mines.

A bill has been introduced in the Legislature changing the time for the meeting of the U. S. District Court at Port Townsend. The time proposed in the new bill is on the second Monday in September and the fourth Monday in February.

The Mail says the Bellingham Bay coal mine is the only mine now in operation in the Territory. Olympia, Seattle, and the other villages along the Sound must come to Bellingham Bay for coal. It is like "carrying coal to Newcastle" in Seattle's case.

At Port Townsend sawmills on the 10th inst. an Indian was struck by a piece of scantling, thrown by an "edger," and had his scalp torn open for a space of four inches, his leg fractured above the knee, and received a severe flesh wound in the back of his thigh.

The British ship Clarendon was towed into port at Port Townsend on Saturday, the 8th inst., from Royal Roads, by the tug Isabel. The Clarendon made the run from Callao to Royal Roads in the remarkably short time of 34 days. She will load at Port Blakely for Callao.

The Olympia Courier hints darkly but pointedly thus: The plot is said to be thickening. Col. Kemble, the Indian Inspector, is still here, detained by new complications, which are said to have arisen out of his arbitrary proceedings in assuming powers belonging alone to the President of the United States.

The Seattle Intelligencer is informed that the fine vessel now being built at Utsalady, for Captain Johnson, owner of the schooner Norway, is expected to be ready for launching in about four weeks. She is undoubtedly one of the finest specimens of naval architecture which has yet been produced upon this coast, and one which our Territory may well be proud of. Her dimensions are—length of keel, 150 feet; breadth of beam, 32 feet; depth of hold, 14 feet. She will be about 650 tons burthen, and will be rigged as a barkentine.

IN MEMORY OF JUDGE WYCHE.

On opening of the District Court at Olympia on the 10th inst., the presiding Judge, Hon. R. S. Greene, said:

The busy and honorable professional life of Judge Wyche has closed.

The Court departs from its usual course in thus noticing in its proceedings the death of a member of its bar. But this is an exceptional bereavement. One of the ablest expounders of our laws, a former Justice of our highest Courts, a man personally well known and endeared to nearly every citizen in the Territory, is in the grave.

It will not be long before we, who occupy the forum where he stood, the bench where he sat—we, who now replace as best we may the cheer and worth of his lost presence, shall leave these scenes for other men to fill. How can we fail to live better lives ourselves, because he has lived here with us. May this grace be our heritage from him, to impart to those about us and to those who shall succeed us, an example as amiable and luminous, whether of public or private virtue, as his full life displays.

The Court then appointed a Committee on Resolutions and adjourned. On the convening of the Court next morning, the following resolutions were reported:

To the Honorable Roger S. Greene, Judge of the District Court of the Second Judicial District of Washington Territory, holding terms at Olympia:

The undersigned who were appointed by your Honor to prepare a suitable tribute of respect to the memory of James E. Wyche, late a Counselor at the bar of this Court—a former Judge of this District, and for eight years Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of this Territory, who died August 29, A. D. 1873, do respectfully report the following, and ask that the same be spread at length on a separate page of the records of this Court.

The members of the bar of this District, in common with their brethren throughout the Territory, have received with profound sensibility, the sad tidings of the death of James E. Wyche, who was one of the foremost of the profession, alike distinguished as a Jurist, Lawyer and Advocate.

We hold in high estimation the memory of our deceased brother, as one of the bright lights of the Territory, distinguished for his public services upon the bench and for skill, learning, zeal, and ability at the bar.

The younger members of the bar will always remember James E. Wyche with grateful feelings because of his kindness and forbearance towards them and the encouragement he always so kindly extended. The older members will remember his impartiality as a Judge and his courtesy as an associate, and all will recollect him as a genial companion and a social gentleman.

We ask your honor to direct that a duly attested copy hereof be transmitted to the family of our deceased brother with the expression of our heartiest sympathies and condolence.

SATURDAY MORNING NOV 15, 1873.

A DERELICT OFFICER.

It is with no desire to wound the sensitive spirit of M F Mulkey Esq that we refer again to his delinquency as City Attorney But we know of no franchise appertaining to his office which relieves him from the common obligation to obey the laws and ordinances under which he holds that office Sec 62 of the Charter of the City of Portland provides as follows

Sec 62 The City Attorney must attend to all actions suits or proceedings in which the City is legally interested and attend to the prosecution of all persons charged with the violation of a city ordinance and give his advice and opinion in writing concerning any matter in which the city is interested when required by the Mayor or Council

The language of this section, it will be observed is peremptory—the City Attorney must attend to all actions suits etc Ordinance No 1 082 repeals the definition quoted above with one or two additions Sec. 8 of the Charter provides for the election of a Treasurer, Assessor Auditor, Attorney, Street Commissioner and Surveyor The four latter

Shall be elected by the Common Council the votes of a majority of all the members then constituting the Council being necessary to elect and they shall hold their offices until their successors are elected and qualified liable however to be removed at any time by the Mayor and Council for misfeasance inattention or incompetency

It appears that the present City Attorney has not appeared in the Police Court to attend to the prosecution of persons charged with the violation of city ordinances since the 1th day of October last During all this time the city has been represented by other attorneys These attorneys have been nominated by Mr Mulkey and recognized by the Police Judge as deputies We can find no authority in the Charter which confers upon the City Attorney power to appoint a substitute or deputy On the other hand, if it be argued that he has a right so to delegate his authority, he must also have the right, when called upon by the Mayor or Common Council for "his advice and opinion in writing," to authorize his deputy to furnish such advice or opinion It is not probable that the City Council would deem such a transaction regular There is, therefore room for grave doubts as to the legality of convictions had under prosecutions by Mr Mulkey's deputy If this right of appointment be confirmed by the City Council, we may next hear of the exercise of a similar power by Police Judge Denny

Furthermore, the City Attorney should certainly be able to give some substantial reason for this singular action It is worthy of notice that Mr Mulkey disappeared from the Police Court on the morning after the recent election It is a noteworthy coincidence also that on the same morning an article appeared in the OREGONIAN in which Mr Mulkey was arraigned for corrupting our elections for bribing voters In due process of time it appeared that Ryan one of the [illegible] repeaters, had made a confession in which he denounced City Attorney Mulkey as one of the parties who had bribed him. This witness was hustled out of the country as soon as he was released on bail. There are certain other ugly stories afloat which go to confirm the belief of Mulkey's complicity in the wholesale scheme of corruption by which Multnomah county was made to give a majority for Hiram Smith can be abundantly proven We never saw a better developed case of conscious guilt than this one of the City Attorney's He has all the symptoms of a briber There is the averted glance the restless movement and general indisposition to converse on the subject of elections It may be that Mulkey is a victim of circumstantial evidence, that his tender sensibilities have been wounded in the rough commerce of the back slums of the city, and that his reputation will yet come forth from this severe trial unsullied and pure as refined gold But there is every indication that investigation in the courts would bring out some dark spots which, as yet have not appeared It must be conceded that City Attorney Mulkey is in a bad way He stands on slippery ground, and we should not be surprised to hear on some fine morning that he has gone hence to seek some more desirable and less tropical climate

All things considered, we think there is ample justification for the action of the Common Council in appointing a committee to inquire into the conduct of the City Attorney If the OREGONIAN can facilitate their labors in any way, it will be pleased to do so It may have something more to say in a day or two

AN INTERESTING DECISION

In the Sacramento Union of November 8th we notice a decision of the Supreme Court of California, in which the following points were decided That an injunction will not lie to restrain the collection of a tax if a debt for money lent and secured by mortgage be taxed, and if the mortgaged property be also taxed and the tax paid the same value and subject matter has been twice taxed, and it presents a case of double taxation in so far as the Code requires credits to be assessed as property for the purposes of taxation it is not in contravention of the Constitution when money is deposited in a savings banks to be loaned out for the benefit of the depositor if it is assessed to the depositor and also to the bank and payment of the taxes is exacted from both it is double taxation a solvent debt is subject to taxation in the same manner as property of any other class or character The suit was an appeal from the District Court of the Fifteenth District The plaintiffs obtained an [illegible] the defendant, as Tax Collector of the city and county of San Francisco from collecting certain taxes assessed against them for the twenty fourth fiscal year The defendant moved to dissolve the injunction the motion was denied and he appealed from the order denying it

In delivering his decision Justice Crockett discussed in the following words the question of taxing loans

I conclude therefore that a tax on loans [illegible] the borrower [illegible] secured by mortgage [illegible] on the mortgage [illegible] taxed once on the property and once on the debt which the property represents—and yet no new value has been created by the transaction He is no richer, and has no more property than he had before and if the money which he received from the lender remained in his hands it is also taxed If the money has passed into the possession of another tax payer it is taxed in his hands so that the property and the money are each separately taxed and if the more promise or obligation of the borrower to repay the money is also taxed and the tax is paid by him as it must be it is clear that he has been twice taxed on the same value or subject matter This is a violation of that clause of the Constitution—which requires that taxation shall be equal and uniform and that property shall be taxed in proportion to its value When the mortgaged property has once paid its tax it has discharged its full obligation to the State and the owner of it cannot in justice ought not be subjected to another tax merely because he has borrowed a sum of money for which the property is pledged as a security

Bishop William George Tozer it will be remembered was very much scandalized at the action of the Dean of Canterbury in partaking of the Holy Sacrament of Communion in a Presbyterian Church Our readers have seen his censorious letter to Dr Potter and the reply of Bishop Cummings of Kentucky The discussion has been taken up by a host of writers and Bishop William George of Zanzibar is ridiculed out of court We notice, in an Eastern exchange an anonymous communication in which the following definition of a Bishop in partibus, taken from an English work published in 1562, is applied to Tozer

The following definition of a Bishop in partibus said to be taken from a work published in England in 1562 finds its application in the new celebrated ( ) Bishop of Zanzibar It often happens that men are more than enough for priesthood and not quite enough for office of bishop Such are ordained in part or so much as there is of them and it is usual to send them abroad that they may grow to the full measure of a bishop" Rev Mr William George Tozer of England, was made such a bishop and sent to Africa where writes Dr Livingstone who met him in that country

Though Bishop of Zanzibar he stays on the mainland through fear of fever and peeps at his diocese through a telescope

The Bulletin has at last found a paper among its exchanges, which does not relish independent journalism We imagine how many hours have been fruitlessly spent in searching Eastern papers for some authority which shall sustain its ideas of party serfdom We will pit the following extract from that staunch Republican journal the Pittsburgh Gazette against the equivocal words of the St Louis Globe

But there is no doubt in our mind on one point—that candor and independence are better for press and party the country over As a rule the paper that is honest in its independence fair and not captious in its treatment of parties and candidates will gain far more than any party can cause it to lose The people whose patronage is worth more than any party or corporation or Government want first of all honesty ability candor and fairness in their papers These assured and they can make good any losses that can possibly come from partisan revenge and such journals will exert a large influence not merely among the people, but upon the welfare of the party whose claims they advocate.

Not to discuss the subject farther—we offer this. It is better that the Republican press should show fealty to party principles than to party policy or leaders when there is a conflict between the two

The Marysville Appeal, one of the best and strongest Republican papers in Northern California has been looking over the political field, and is discouraged It thinks "the Republican leaders by their Credit Mobilierism back pay grabs general extravagance in squandering the public money increase of appropriations and the growing public debt notwithstanding the enormous taxes heaped upon the people, have nearly forfeited the confidence of the people, but not to the extent of reviving and restoring to power the old Democratic party Why this is arrant heresy! And then the Appeal follows this up with the annexed

Party adhesion and partizan ties are weak and giving away Parties are searching for their former adherents and supporters, and partizans are groping about in the dark looking after the head of their old organizations Partizan rebellion is rife and the political ship is adrift without a pilot

It is proper to note that all through the last campaign the Appeal was bitterly opposed to the People's movement

The Republic tells us that the Republican party stands squarely on the following platform

Opposition to the back pay legislation

Opposition to all monopolies that tend to oppress labor or interfere with the rights of the people

Opposition to the Lobby and all other influences which tend to corrupt or interfere with honest legislation

Opposition to further land grants except for educational purposes or immediate settlement

Opposition to anything that tends to extravagance or corruption in the administration of the Government

The managers and self styled regulars do not stand on that platform They stand rather, on the platform of a railroad car and they are perceptibly moving away from the party We wish the Bulletin would exchange with sound Republican papers instead of monopoly organs Why should it forever be a jewel in the snout of the swinish railway power?

A correspondent writing from Jacksonville under date of Nov 11th says that the trial of W K Ish on a charge of assault with intent to kill was commenced on the 10th inst Messrs J F & I Watson and C W Kahler appeared as counsel for the defendant and Messrs J R Neil and Stinson for the State The case was submitted on the 11th inst and the jury returned a verdict of not guilty after a half hour's deliberation It will be remembered that the alleged assault was made upon Jas D Fay during a shooting scrape between Fay and one of Ish's brothers

The Washington Star of Oct [illegible] says that the published statement that the bodies of Captain Jack and Schonchin were decapitated after execution and their heads forwarded in alcohol for deposit in the army medical museum is contradicted by the Secretary of War who says that he never heard anything about it until he saw the newspaper paragraph announcing it and that the heads have not arrived at Washington

The N[illegible] is a little apprehensive that General Butler will be chosen by the Massachusetts General Court to succeed Senator Sumner It tells us that he is buzzing the hold over senators of the Legislature Our neighbor ought to know that all the members of the Massachusetts [illegible] and Representatives are elected in [illegible]

A London correspondent tells [illegible] telegraphed in England [illegible] the anticipations of Mr Scudamore [illegible] September last the telegraphic [illegible] in England [illegible] were one thousand per day more than in the same month of 1872

The Oakland Cal News tells us that the income of Alvinza Hayward is greater than that of any other man in America He receives in his lands from Crown Point stock alone $800 [illegible] per month And yet he would part with all his wealth for health [illegible]

CITY.

Fine Wedding.—Owing to the crowded state of our columns yesterday morning we could not find room to speak of the celebration of the nuptials of Mr Isam White and Miss [illegible], which were celebrated in this city Thursday afternoon. A number of the friends of the parties were present and the festivities of the hour were of the most enjoyable kind. The happy groom very generously remembered the press and during the evening Mr Hegele of the firm of Alisky & Hegele, placed on our sanctum table an elegant cake beautifully frosted and lettered with the word "Oregonian" and two bottles of delicious champagne, around which was soon gathered the editorial corps of our paper who drank heartily and ate with relish to the health of the happy pair whose destinies had been joined, wishing them a rosy pathway through life and all good fortune forever.

Mr White and wife will sail on the Oriflamme this morning on their bridal tour. May it be to them a pleasant and prosperous voyage.

Passengers.—The Oriflamme which sailed this morning for San Francisco carried away the following passengers: George Patten, Mr Merryfield and two children, J F Robert, wife and child, George W Hume, wife and two children, T H Hattern, T H McCann, Mrs G M Stroud and son, S O I Potter and wife, N Apple, Miss Susie Pray, Charles Holder, J R Dwyer, J Reynolds, S W Dunn, J J W Stemme, James Daniels, Mrs Webster, Mrs Wilson, W K Leverlly, R D [illegible] and wife, A Martin, H T Perkins, William Gates and brother, Mrs B Gallagher, Mrs M R Price, Isam White and wife, J C Williams, wife and son, Mrs W T Shanahan and two children, D T Mattock and wife, W D Ogden, and twelve in the steerage.

Lecture.—The Hon Levi Leland will address the citizens of Portland on the temperance issues of the day at Good Templar's Hall, corner of Third and Alder streets, on this (Saturday) evening and on to-morrow, Sunday evening, beginning at 8 o'clock. The Portland Brass Band will furnish music for the occasion. The public are cordially invited to attend. It is designed during the coming winter to give a series of first class lectures in this elegant hall. No charge for admission and no collection will be taken up.

Almost a Fire.—On Thursday morning, about 5 o'clock, Mr Phil Saunders discovered a fire issuing from the chimney of the building on North Front street, of which he occupies a portion as a saloon. He promptly took measures to stop it and in order to do so procured a pair of blankets and a piece of ice, proceeded to the roof and deposited the articles in the chimney. This had the effect of quenching the flames. He received a few burns in performing the work, which are not of a serious character, however.

Properly Cared For.—George Cross, who fell down the hold of the bark Santa Rosa on Thursday and sustained severe injuries, is now at the Poor House, and is reported to be doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances. Dr Giltner, accompanied by Dr Cardwell, went out late on Thursday evening and set the fractured limb. Yesterday Cross was resting quite comfortably, but it is not yet determined whether the limb will have to be amputated or not.

All Afloat.—The Mary Bell, which knocked a small hole in her bottom and was beached at Ross Island on Thursday, was repaired yesterday, the water pumped out and she again set afloat as good as before. She came down to the wharf last evening and went on down to St. Helens to tow up a raft. The work of putting her to rights was done by Mr Congdon, who made a short job of it, as she was found to be but very slightly damaged.

Recovering.—Mr Moore, the old gentleman whose arm was so terribly lacerated about two weeks ago by a circular saw that amputation was necessary, is reported to be getting along encouragingly. Two amputations were deemed necessary to save the life of Mr Moore, and strong fears were entertained that gangrene would follow the second amputation, but it seems that the patient is in a fair way to recover.

Lectures.—A correspondent at Olympia, under date of the 13th, says: "Professor J D White, the elocutionist, gave an entertainment last night in Tacoma Hall which was well attended. Mr White is now on his way to Portland and will probably lecture at Nonpareil Hall about Saturday or Monday."

Mrs Chamberlain will lecture on Spiritualism this evening at Columbia Hall.

Turned Up.—Some months ago we mentioned the finding of the body of an unknown man near Oregon City. Some of the residents of that place thought it was Mr J Allen, an elderly man who had absented himself about that time, and they still believed it until the missing man made his appearance on Thursday upon the streets. He had been up north during the interval.

Fell Down Stairs.—On Thursday evening, a little child of Mr Geo W Hillman fell down a flight of stairs and was quite severely injured. The head and one side were bruised considerably. For some time after the accident the child remained in an unconscious condition. However at present, the child is getting along well and will soon be around again.

Preparing to Launch.—At length the ferryboat which has been undergoing a complete overhauling on the east side of the river is finished, and will be launched soon. Workmen were engaged yesterday in placing down ways extending from the boat down to the water's edge on which it will be slid down into the river.

Weather Report.—From the records of the U S Signal Station of Observation, Portland, Oregon, Nov 14 1873:

Thermometer	42°	47	42
Wind direction	Calm	NW	W

Change of Time.—The choral service at St Stephen's chapel will until further notice, be at half past 3 instead of 4 o'clock, as heretofore. Morning service at the usual hour of 11 o'clock, the Rev John Rosenberg officiating.

Until Monday.—All jurors who were not included in the panel called to try the case of the State v. Dr Glass in the Circuit Court yesterday were excused from further attendance on the Court until Monday morning.

Grand Jury Discharged.—Late on Thursday evening the United States Grand Jury presented [illegible] additional bills of indictment, after which they were discharged for the term.

TRIAL OF DR GLASS

In the Circuit Court yesterday morning the trial of the case of the State vs. Dr Glass was resumed.

DR RICE

Was called and cross-examined. Saw Miss Hardman's body at her father's house. At the examination Drs. Boughton, Harris and myself and Mr Backus, was engaged in the autopsy about one hour; it was made at the instance of Messrs. Backus, Harris and Irvine; no appearance of congestion in the stomach; appeared very thin and transparent; bowel presented a similar appearance. [Here the witness gave a long and minute description of the appearance of the uterus as was found at the time of the post mortem examination was made, which is omitted for obvious reasons.]

DR KINNEY

Was called and testified: I reside in Portland; am a physician of three years' practice; have had considerable experience in holding post mortem examinations; have held and witnessed several hundred such examinations during my practice. I have examined the uterus purporting to have been taken from the body of Mary E Hardman; examination was held in my office. [Here Dr Harris was called to identify the uterus. The witness was present at the autopsy held over the remains of Miss Hardman's body; he preserved the uterus; the uterus examined by Dr Kinney was the identical one the witness had preserved.]

Dr Kinney resumed: The uterus I examined had been preserved in alcohol; found a fissure and several punctures in the walls; from appearance it had been rudely manipulated. [The witness then gave a detailed description of the appearance of the uterus and of the character of the several wounds.] The witness testified positively that several of these wounds had been made prior to the death of the patient and that an instrument had been employed in making them.

The witness was then subjected to a long and critical cross examination, after which the Court adjourned until 1 o'clock.

AFTERNOON

The Court was promptly convened at one o'clock. The same attorneys heretofore noticed as appearing for the prosecution and defense were present, with the addition of W W Thayer Esq, who aided in conducting the case on part of the defendant.

DR W H HANCHETT,

A physician of Eugene City, was called to the witness stand and testified that he was acquainted with Mary E. Hardman, and that he saw her at Eugene City about the 1st day of October last, that she appeared to be in good health, and that he had a conversation with her at that time.

Owing to an objection by defendant's counsel the witness was withdrawn from the stand temporarily and

DR HARRIS

Of Albany, who in company with Drs. Rice and Boughton made a post mortem examination of the body of deceased, was called, and being sworn, testified of the apparent healthy condition of the several organs of the body, their bloodlessness, and gave it as his medical opinion that deceased came to her death from excessive hemorrhage. He said he made an examination sufficiently thorough to convince him that the death of the mother occurred within 36 or 48 hours after the birth of the child and that the child might have been dead in utero four or five days.

DR BOUGHTON,

Another Albany physician, testified that on the post mortem examination, all the organs of the body except the uterus appeared to be in a healthy, but bloodless condition; that he observed no indications of a cause producing her death other than hemorrhage; that death, in his opinion, must have resulted within 24 or 48 hours after delivery.

DR W H WATKINS

Of this city, was called, and testified that he in company with other physicians had made an examination of the uterus of deceased at Dr Kinney's office, in this city, on the 12th inst., and that the wounds which had been seen on the organ would produce death from hemorrhage. He gave his opinion as a medical man that a woman could not die of metritis without indications of the inflammation being presented on a post mortem examination.

DR. R. B. WILSON

of Portland, was called, and gave his opinion upon a hypothetical case similar to the one at bar as described by the several witnesses for the State, and corroborated the testimony of Drs Watkins and Boughton upon the indications to be seen on an examination after death by metritis. He was clear that indications of the [illegible] would be seen in an examination within 48 hours after the death of the patient.

DR HANCHETT

Was recalled and the question asked him by counsel for the State: "What was the conversation which you had with Mary Hardman?" The witness answered that the conversation was of a professional character, when the counsel for the defendant objected to the introduction of the statements of the deceased, at that time, as they were not part of the res gestae. The Court was in doubt as to the admissibility of the testimony sought to be introduced and its competency was argued somewhat at length by Messrs Thompson and Effinger for and Messrs Williams and Thayer against. The Court desiring to be further advised in the matter, took a recess at half past 3 o'clock until 5 P M.

EVENING SESSION

On convening the Court stated that it was still in doubt as to the admissibility of such questions. After arguing the objection for some time it was overruled and Dr Hanchett was recalled and testified: Saw Mary Hardman on or about the 1st of October. She made application to me about that date, as a physician, for treatment. The application was made relative to her pregnancy.

MR STRICKER

Was recalled and testified: I knew Mary Hardman about four years. She was a cousin of my wife. [Two photographs were shown to the witness, who stated that they were the pictures of the deceased.]

MRS THOMPSON

Was recalled and testified: The photographs were exhibited and witness stated they looked like a lady who called to see her on Sunday, October 5th, about 8 o'clock. I should think she was the same person as represented by the picture; she called at my office and was there about fifteen minutes; she made application to me as a physician; the application was made relative to her pregnancy; at the time application was made the person appeared in good health; saw nothing unusual in her appearance.

Here the counsel for the State rested their case.

THE DEFENSE

Moved at this juncture that the defendant be discharged on the ground that the grand jury who examined into the case had no legal authority to do so, for the reason that the alleged crime was committed before they were discharged.

The motion was filed and argued at considerable length by the prosecution and overruled by the Court.

The first witness called for the defense was

MRS ALLISON

Who being sworn testified: I reside in Albany; have lived there several years; knew Mary Hardman; saw her about the 17th of September; had no conversation with her about her condition; she returned from Eugene about the 29th of September; looked very bad when she came back to Albany; looked very pale, and then looked healthy when she started to Eugene. I noticed her condition when I shook hands with her at the depot when she came down. I asked her if she had been sick; she said "Yes, I have, while I was at Eugene I was very sick; had Dr Patterson called to [illegible] she had taken some very nauseous [illegible] for [illegible]; she said she was feeling better when she came down to Albany. I knew her condition and advised her to go home to her parents; she said she never would; that she intended to return to Eugene in a few days; she took the medicine at Mrs [illegible] in Eugene.

Cross-Examined: [illegible] I think Miss Hardman stopped at Mr Mealey's house; [illegible] did not tell me what kind of [illegible] she had taken [illegible] [illegible] had taken the same.

MRS WILLIAMS

Testified: I live in Albany; knew Mary Hardman; saw her on the [illegible] of September for the last time; saw her at Mr Allison's [illegible]; she looked very bad, pale and thin; she looked well before she went to Eugene; [illegible] she was very sick while there; took some terrible bad medicine; had no color in her face.

Cross-Examined: Had known Miss Hardman about one year; said she had been sick about four days while at Eugene; did not tell me what kind of medicine she had taken [illegible] for what purpose [illegible] days at Mr Mealey's and then return to Eugene. This was on the 30th of September.

MRS GARDNER

Testified: I reside in Eugene City; have lived there about two years; am a midwife; saw Mary Hardman at my house some time in September; came to my house and asked to remain a few days; she remained about three days. I was sick at the time; said she had the chills; she was not in bed any of that time; she had a phial which she said contained oil of tansy; I do not know where she obtained the phial; she asked me how much she ought to take; I told her I did not know; did not take any then; afterwards she said she was determined to get rid of her troubles if it killed her.

Cross-Examined: Could not state the exact date when Miss Hardman came to my house; did not examine the phial carefully.

Mrs Mealey, wife of Charles Mealey, one of the defendants, was called as a witness. Strong objections were urged by the prosecution, who claimed that the witness was not competent. The point was argued at much length, and the Court overruled the objections.

The witness was sworn and testified: I reside in Albany; knew Mary Hardman during her life; saw her for the last time on the 4th of October; learned of her condition when she went to Eugene; she was not well when she came down from Eugene; staid at my house the night before she started for Portland; was very sick during that night; said she was coming to Portland to stay at the Sisters until her confinement was over; she started on Sunday morning on the train bound for Portland; she wanted my son George to accompany her down; my husband came down with her. Mary said she desired to seclude herself from the world until her present troubles were over; she slept at my house before she started for Portland; said she thought that she would not have to remain long in Portland as she had experienced great pain during the night.

MR BRENNER

Testified: I reside in Portland; was a witness before the grand jury in the examination of this case; know Chas Mealey; known him for five years; saw him at my house on September 7th; Mealey came to my house and desired to rent a room; asked if I could not get a room; live on Fourth street; have a family; Mealey said he had brought down a sick young lady from Albany; that she wanted a quiet room; he told me that she was pregnant; would probably want to lease the room for two months; told him I could not accommodate him; he said he had made application for her admission to the Sisters, but had been denied admittance; I told him that there were two hospitals in the city; spoke of Dr Glass' room in the same connection; Mealey said before he left that he would endeavor to find a room for the young lady; that he would probably take her to Dr Glass' office; he desired me to come down to the hotel the next morning; the next day I went down to the hotel and accompanied Mr Mealey to Dr Glass' office, and gave him an introduction.

Cross-Examination.—Went down to the hotel on Monday morning; never saw Mary Hardman at all; was not present at the conversation which took place between Glass and Mealey at former's office; did not say who was to pay the bills; afterwards Mealey left word with Glass to the effect that if Miss Hardman wanted anything I was to let her have it. I saw Glass occasionally after Miss Hardman was left in his care; he told me several times that she was very ill; one day he told me that she was getting better; did not know that Miss Hardman was dead until her brother came down to take the body home.

On re-examination the witness said that Mealey told him that Miss Hardman was enceinte, that after her confinement his son George was to marry her.

MR HAYS

Testified: I reside in Portland; was boarding at Dr Glass' during October; saw Miss Hardman when she came to his office; she looked very bad when I saw her; saw her at the table; looked as if she had been suffering from the chills.

MRS MEALEY

Was recalled and testified: Saw the father and mother of Miss Hardman on the day after Mr Mealey and the young lady had gone to Portland. I said that Mary had gone to Portland. I only conversed with Mary's mother on the subject.

MR. F. M. WADSWORTH

Testified: I know Charles Mealey—also Mary Hardman; was stopping at the Occidental Hotel on the evening of October 5th; saw both at that time. Mealey told me that he intended to try and get the Sisters to take her; was all the evening in company with Mealey; I accompanied him that evening to Mr Brenner's; was at that gentleman's house about half an hour.

Court adjourned to meet at 9 o'clock on Saturday.

FASHION NOTES

Sets of cheviot linen in blue and brown scalloped in satin stitch are worn for negligé and traveling.

The large mask veil with long tabs is worn in preference to any other shape, square or three cornered.

The stylish colors in ladies neckties are cardinal, the new soft, rosy scarlet, with sultana bars, turquoise with navy blue ends, sage green with nile, deep blue with lavender, flesh color and pink.

Heavy square mesh grenadine veils with narrow woven border and fringe are worn in steel gray and leaf brown for protection against the wind, and a veil pin is indispensable to prevent the loss perhaps of a valuable veil.

Black lace bonnets with or without crowns are worn at receptions and theaters instead of white tulle. The wreath of narrow rose foliage across the face is supplemented by a bouquet of half blown rose buds with stems under the brim at the left if the wearer is a young lady.

Charming confusion is evident in the variety of neck wear. The ruff set on the revers is condemned as a hybrid style, and favor is divided between the new wide round collar of lace or velvet, becoming to people with full throats, and the close Medici or more coquettish Stuart ruff of Valenciennes or applique.

Black velvet an inch and a half wide with ends embroidered in blue or scarlet bees with sewing silk fringe are the newest neck ribbons and pass round the neck below a white ruff crossing low in front. Infanta ribbon the same width is twisted round the collar with a little sheaf bow and ends falling over the bosom.

Receptions and opera require for dress gloves the pale chalky tints of [illegible], rose and lavender, that light admirably and harmonize with the sacques or dolmans of white rose or flesh tinted cashmere, crusted with soutache and deeply fringed, over the opal or ash colored silk which form distinguished opera toilets.

House sacques are of sky-blue or pink double merino scalloped with white zephyr, fitting in the back, loose in front and sleeves, with deep frill worked on both edges. Medium gray cloth scalloped with dark gray is worn for service rather than black. Dress jackets of [illegible] or pale blue, lavender and light green are embroidered in shades of the same color, sprinkled with tiny [illegible] and fringed in shades.

For weddings and full dress [illegible] are the palest of straw and pearl white shades which have the purity [illegible] dead white. Gloves fashion [illegible] three-button gloves for most occasions as four buttons [illegible] [illegible] a thing to the style of the hand. THE COURTS

CIRCUIT COURT—UPTON J

FRIDAY Nov 14 1873

State vs J Kennedy and Julia McKensie. Charles Farrish appointed counsel for defendant J Kennedy, and defendants allowed until to-morrow to plead.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Emmet Guard have completed arrangements for their ball, which takes place on Thanksgiving Eve at their Armory. Committees have been selected and everything augurs well for a most enjoyable occasion.

Keep Out the Cold.—During the winter months everybody is anxious to avoid the severity of the weather and various modes are resorted to in carrying out the best means of keeping warm. While BECK & WALDMAN are selling clothing from their immense stock at extremely low prices it would be well to call in and select a winter suit. They keep the best selected stock in any house and do not propose to be outdone by any other house in the city. They are to be found at the old stand, S W corner Washington and Front streets.

Clothe Yourself.—Now is the time to make a purchase of winter clothing. If you have not done so make it a point to consult J KOHN & CO, who are able to show you the finest assortment of goods ever displayed in the city. They have the largest store and are thus enabled to lay in an immense stock. There is no denying the fact. You need not hesitate about prices as they have put the figures down to allow but a small margin to themselves. The place is opposite the National Bank.

Don't go home to-night without having previously made arrangements with John O'Neil & Co to do up a fall suit in their own peculiar style, which is quite popular as the elegant suits daily seen on the streets from this house will attest. Mr Scharf of the firm has been to San Francisco. That is sufficient. Be sure to call and select from the latest arrivals, which are new and novel. The place is 93 First street.

Sold by druggists everywhere.

A case of chronic rheumatism of unusual severity cured by Johnson's Anodyne Liniment is noticed by one of our exchanges. A large lump came out upon the breast of the sufferer and appeared like a part of the breast bone. Used internally and externally.

The sweetest word in our language is health. At the first indication of disease use well known and approved remedies. For dyspepsia or indigestion, Parsons' Purgative Pills. For coughs, colds, sore or lame stomach use Johnson's Anodyne Liniment.

Medical Bubbles.

Columns would be required to enumerate the medical bubbles that have risen to the surface and burst since Hostetter's Stomach Bitters became the standard tonic of the Western Hemisphere. Boasts the most extravagant, fabrications the most preposterous, cant the most sickening, have in turn been employed to bolster up the worthless preparations that have from time to time been introduced in the hope of dividing the field with that famous vegetable remedy. Signal failure has been the lot of all. The reputation of the Bitters as a preventive of epidemics, as a stomachic, an invigorant, a general restorative, and a specific for indigestion, billious affections, rheumatism, nervous debility, constitutional weakness, paroxysmal fevers and all complaints to which the more sensitive sex are exclusively liable, is established upon the sound basis of more than twenty years experience, and can no more be shaken by the clap trap nostrums of unscientific pretenders than the everlasting hills by the winds that rustle through their defiles.

MARY AND I.

'Twas evening in May and the soft zephyr sighed
Through branches low bending above;
My Mary and I as we wandered along
And whisper'd of beauty and love,
"We'll make us a nest like the birdlings," I said,
And never shall part any more;
"Oh yes," she replied, "and can furnish it nice
At HURGREN & SHINDLER'S STORE."

Fair creature there's many a wealthier man
Would gladly have you for a bride,
But no one can love you more fondly than I—
My treasure, my beauty and pride!
Oh had I a mansion with carpets of gold
And silver I'd cover the floor!"
But, smiling, she said, "You can purchase the best
At HURGREN & SHINDLER'S STORE.

I'll spread you a couch upon which to recline
When evening shall call us to rest,
Of the fleeciest down — but," she said with a sigh,
"I like a hair mattress the best."
"Then so it shall be, love, and tables inlaid,
And seats from [illegible] far distant shore.
"Oh no," she exclaimed, "They have elegant sets
At HURGREN & SHINDLER'S STORE."

"But, Mary, alas I must sadly confess
My means are but slender as yet,
To furnish a house in the style you demand
Would hopelessly plunge me in debt—
To ask you to share my poor lodgings and board
Is something that I should deplore."
She said with a smile, "You can buy very cheap
At HURGREN & SHINDLER'S STORE."

To-morrow then love let us journey along
To the corner of Alder and Front street—
'Tis numbers 98 and 100 (river side)
Where lovers so happily meet,
How many fond souls might be severed for years
From those they so fondly adore,
Were it not for the beautiful furniture they have
At HURGREN & SHINDLER'S STORE.

They have marble top bureaus and elegant sets
Of Bedroom furniture new,
With center tables and what-nots and mirrors great,
And an endless variety of chairs, not a few.
They do a cash business and with money in hand
To purchase every style of furniture lower,
Are able to supply all the public demand
At HURGREN & SHINDLER'S STORE.

We went, Mary and I, and can I ever forget
The pleasure that beamed in her face
As she gazed at the marvels of beauty displayed
In HURGREN & SHINDLER'S place!
We furnished our home in an elegant style
Been married a twelve month or more
And Mary is singing this song to her babe,
Of HURGREN & SHINDLER'S STORE.

UNMASKED

I was stopping at the Hotel Windsor at Rue le Rivoli, Paris.

One morning I was smoking in the colonnade, when a tall, elegantly-dressed gentleman asked permission to light his cigar by mine. I saw at once he was a Frenchman although his "English" was nearly perfect.

"Have you heard the news?" he inquired.

No.

Is it possible. Why, all Paris is alive with it at this moment.

"What has happened?"

The Countess de Marville the fairest of the fair was found murdered in her bed last night, her bureau broken open and ten thousand francs missing from it. It was terrible! The brute who did the deed effected his entrance through the window of her chamber near which unfortunately was a tall tree, planted by the distinguished grandfather of the Countess years ago. Little did he imagine what a terrible use would be made of it.

"This is bad news. How any man could harm a woman thus in cold blood is more than I can imagine."

Ah monsieur, if you had ever seen the Countess, you would wonder still more. She was beautiful—beautiful as an angel," he added stroking his whiskers with an unmistakable air of vanity. "I knew her well."

"Indeed."

"Oh yes. There are in Paris few popular women unknown to me."

His manner now was decidedly conceited, and I felt disgusted. My coldness evidently ... he ... left me.

Afterwards I heard from other accounts of the late tragedy.

Among the details of the affair was one which peculiarly impressed me—and which my first informant had not spoken of—an oversight which surprised me as the occurrence he had not mentioned was of that kind which would be most apt to strike the fancy.

Upon the throat of the Countess the murderer, in throttling her, had left a mark from a ring he wore—the impression of a chariot wheel with a star in the center.

"This," said my latest informant, may lead ... Mosqueau is already visiting the jewelers' shops to find out from whom and by whom a ring with a chariot wheel device was purchased.

"Who is Jean Mosqueau?"

"What, Mosqueau our famous detective. Although his courage is well known, you would not, to look at his fair, delicate face and form, believe that he could fight a gnat."

A week later I was aboard the steamer bound from C... to Dover.

Among the passengers I beheld one whose face looked familiar to me. I was not long in recognizing this person as the same I had seen in front of the Hotel Windsor, and who had just informed me of the murder of the Countess.

He was certainly a very handsome man although his conceited air was a blot upon his good looks.

He moved ... thither and thither turning his brown eyes admiringly upon the pretty lady ..., while stroking his whiskers with one white hand upon the middle finger of which was a superb diamond ring.

I am rather of a suspicious nature, which combined with a lively imagination, had often led me into singular errors.

Now, a strange impulse moved me to advance and hold out my hand to the man whom I had involuntarily disliked from the first in order that I might have a chance to glance at his ring. Somehow the idea possessed me that I should discover a chariot wheel device upon the glittering bauble.

The stranger did not at first recognize me. He soon did, however and frankly extended his left hand, which was not the one containing the ring.

My brain fairly reeled the man's behavior was a confirmation of my suspicions.

The other hand, if you please I said, in a low, stern voice.

"Monsieur will please excuse me the other ... with the rheumatism."

... toward the half hidden ring, and I was sure I saw him start and turn pale, at the same time looking much surprised. He, however, opened his right hand, as if perfectly willing for me to shake it if I chose to.

Then I had a good look at the ring and felt ashamed of my suspicions. The device was a common heart, which certainly bore no resemblance to a chariot wheel.

... to recover my self possession, I turned away resolved in the future to have a better opinion of my fellow-creatures.

The stranger's good looks seemed to attract the attention of a good many of the ladies. One especially, a modest looking little thing, attired in black, kept directing furtive glances at ... she glided so close to him that in turning he ... against her ...

An apology, smilingly received by the little lady, ... about the weather on the part of the gentleman, and the two were soon conversing with animation. Meanwhile the blushing cheek and bright eyes of the fair one seemed to betoken that she was well pleased with her companion whose air was more conceited than ever.

I am afraid we shall have a storm," she remarked, pointing towards a dark cloud upon which the captain of the boat was gazing anxiously.

We may, but do not be alarmed, madame!

With an air of nonchalance he pulled a red cigar case from his pocket and asked his companion if she objected to a smoke. Then he started and quickly returning the red one to his pocket pulled forth another of a blue color.

How many cigars do you smoke a day? inquired the lady, evidently amused at the sight of two cases.

The other colored and it struck me that his voice slightly faltered and his hand trembled, as he made some laughing reply.

Soon the storm came pouring down upon us. We were midway in the channel so that we caught the full force of the sea and the gale. Both were terrific.

The sea swept the boat which lay so far over that her machinery was soon damaged so that it would not work. The wind screaming like a demon threw her over still farther.

Suddenly we observed the sailors endeavoring to lower a long-boat on the davits at the stern. Meanwhile there was an ominous grinding smashing noise under the counter. The truth could not be concealed—we were sinking.

The ladies screamed the hands and passenger lost his self possession, and ran hither and thither.

The cool behavior of the little lady in black contrasted strangely with the agitated demeanor of those around her.

There she stood ... her bright steel blue eyes fixed upon the handsome stranger ... whom she had not lost sight of a moment.

Keep quiet ladies and gentlemen ... out the captain—"Keep quiet and don't crowd about the boat so. There will be room in it for you all and, besides, there is a schooner coming to our assistance" pointing to a vessel bowling towards us before the wind.

There was however a panic among those ... The moment the boat was lowered into it they all bundled among them the handsome passenger.

A huge sea coming along, roaring like thunder, parted the tackling tearing the boat from the steamer before the lady in black or I could enter it. The handsome passenger losing his balance fell over the gunwale and being unable to swim wildly ... his arms.

I must acknowledge that I was so engrossed with the perilous situation of my fair companion and myself—now the only two left aboard the steamer—that I paid little attention to the drowning man.

The steamer was in fact ... I was fast ... already nearly ... by the stormy waves ... lurching as the ... like the sport of the wind.

I was ... the little lady ... with ...

... caught ... the lady ... pushed ...

His power over ... at ... the light ...

The idea ... was very near and I had every reason to believe ... would be picked up.

I was right. We were all taken aboard the schooner the hands and passengers making the rest. Then the lady in black ... revolver, pointing it at the face ... she rescued.

"Out with that red cigar case," ... sternly. "I would like to ... Monsieur currently."

Why, why ... murmured the ... "what is—

"If for ... say another word ... the ... pocket ... the red cigar case and opening it a ring dropped ...

The ring she picked up and holding up before us all explained.

I have found it at last. The jeweler assured me it was the only one of the device in Paris—a chariot wheel. This person is the murderer of the Countess de Marville!"

The handsome passenger stood as if frozen to the deck, making no resistance as the lady in black slipped a pair of handcuffs over his wrists.

By what right he then stammered "do you—

He paused as the other threw off her dress and false hair, revealing the person of a slender man with delicate girlish features.

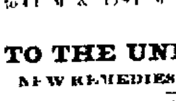
NEW REMEDIES! NEW REMEDIES!

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,



623 KEARNY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency etc. Skin Diseases of years standing and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe, and has resumed practice at his Dispensary 623 Kearny street corner of Commercial, San Francisco where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money seeking out new remedies and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Di...

How many thousands of persons both male and female are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgence or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at the pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and the broken-down constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents guard and friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies so that they may be cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to DR. GIBBON, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who ... all cities publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of the charlatans.

S... Weakness.

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence, practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms unless combatted by scientific medical measures viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco q...

M... W...,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are laboring under any of the fearful ... should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DR. GIBBON is accessible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or no charge.

C... at H...e

Persons at a distance who may be CURED AT ... by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon ... symptoms, length of time the disease has continued and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country with full and plain directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars coin in registered letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union. All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with bogus sworn to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and ... newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets, for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patients letters, etc. Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney st., corner Commercial, San Francisco. Postoffice Box 1,957.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 1,957 ON THE LETTER. Consultations FREE.

Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the DAILY OREGONIAN. jy8dly
